

Collaboration Through Collage Workshop

Elisa Hannay & Macy Bui

July 6th

9-2

To kick off the Collaboration Institute, join Elisa & Macy as they explore collaboration through innovative and hands-on activities. They will share their exciting experiences of working collaboratively across neighboring school districts. This workshop promises to leave participants with inspirational takeaways and ready-to-teach lesson handouts that all students will love!

Elisa Hannay has been an elementary art teacher for Manheim Township School District for five years and taught as a K-12 art teacher in Haiti for three years. She received her graduate and undergraduate degrees from Kutztown.

Macy Bui is a K-12 Art Teacher in the Hempfield School District. She received her undergraduate and graduate degree in Art Education from Kutztown University. Macy is passionate about both the visual and performing arts, assisting with the musical and dance program at Hempfield High School.
