Bachelor of Arts: Music

Bachelor of Arts: Music: Commercial Music

Bachelor of Arts: Music: Performance

Bachelor of Arts: Music Business

Minor: Music, Jazz, Music History, Audio Engineering

Music is a phenomenon common to all societies, a richly diverse experience that is used in many ways. Music can be a form of communication, artistic expression, entertainment, therapy and worship.

As a music major, you will study music from various perspectives including historical, theoretical, pedagogical and performance. You will develop listening skills, critical thinking, and an awareness of aesthetic principles and contemporary technology. Graduates find employment in a wide variety of musical or musically related fields such as private tutoring, performing, music retailing, publishing, entertainment or music librarianship (some occupations require graduate study). Employers recommend one or more internships to be successful and competitive when entering this field.
