

2022 Vital Statistics Report Counseling Programs/Student Outcomes

Kutztown University offers CACREP accredited programs in Clinical Mental Health Counseling; Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling; and School Counseling. As of Fall 2021, Kutztown University started offering an Addiction Counseling Program which is not CACREP accredited but will be applying for accreditation in 2023. In 2022, 31 students graduated from the Clinical Mental Health program; 5 students graduated from the Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling program; 26 students graduated from the School Counseling programs. To summarize, 52 Kutztown University graduate students in the Counseling Programs successfully completed their academic program in Professional Counseling.

The Counselor Education Department requires all Counseling graduate students to successfully pass the Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Examination (CPCE). The pass rate for the KU graduate students in the Clinical Mental Health Counseling (CMHC) program was 93%. Of those graduates who responded to a recent survey, 67% of the graduates surveyed from the Clinical Mental Health Counseling program reported being employed in counseling or a related field and/or were currently unemployed by choice. 100% of the CMHC counseling students completed the program within the university time guidelines.

The Counselor Education Department requires all Counseling graduate students to successfully pass the Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Examination (CPCE). The pass rate for the KU graduate students in the Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling (MCFC) program was 100%. 83% of the graduates from the Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling program reported being employed in counseling or a related field. 100% of these students completed the program within the university time guidelines.

The Pennsylvania Department of Education requires all School Counselors to take the Professional School Counselor Praxis II examination. The pass rate for the KU graduate students in School Counseling program was 96%. The Counselor Education Department also requires all Counseling graduate students to successfully pass the Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Examination (CPCE). The pass rate for the KU graduate students in the School Counseling program was 80%. 80% of the graduates from the School Counseling program as a whole reported being employed in counseling or a related field. 100% of these students completed the program within the university time guidelines.

Employment Settings

Kutztown University Alumni report working in the following settings: Clinical Mental Health Agency (for profit), Clinical Mental Health Agency (non-profit), Drug and Alcohol Outpatient and Partial, Private Practice; Hospital, College/University Setting, Public Elementary School, Public Middle School, Public High School, Charter High School, Intermediate Unit, Private School, and Technical School.

Job Titles Reported by Alumni

Clinical Mental Health Counseling alumni hold the following job titles: Therapist, Outpatient Therapist, School Based Outpatient Therapist, Mental Health Professional, Mental Health Counselor, Addictions Counselor, Behavior Specialist Consultant, and Program Supervisor.

Marriage, Couple, and Family Counseling alumni hold the job titles: Drug and Alcohol Counselor, Addictions Counselor, Outpatient Therapist, and Psychotherapist.

School Counseling alumni hold the following job titles: School Counselor, Outpatient Therapist, Long Term Substitute School Counselor, and Career Counselor.