

Student Learning Outcome (SLO) #8—Explore concepts, ideas and methods from a variety of disciplines.

Definition: Breadth of study is exposure to ideas from a variety of disciplines as defined by the course prefix. Through a transcript audit of graduating seniors, the number of different prefixes taken in the general education program is determined.

This SLO is met by completing the General Education Program.

	Performance Levels
	4	3	2	1
Student output and quality of work	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• 11 or more different prefixes counted among courses taken for general education</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• 10-8 different prefixes counted among courses taken for general education</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• 7-5 different prefixes counted among courses taken for general education</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• 3-4 different prefixes counted among courses taken for general education</li></ul>