ROOMMATE AGREEMENT

This agreement is designed to help roommates get to know each other and to start opening the lines of communication on topics that we know are important for successful roommate relationships.

STEP 1: Review The Roommate Success Guide before completing this form.

STEP 2: Acknowledge you have read the Roommate Bill of Rights in the Roommate Success Guide and complete the box below.

Roommates Names (print)	Initial below to indicate you have read the Roommate Bill of Rights

STEP 3: You and your roommates have been given two copies of this form. Together, answer every question below. Fill in your agreed-upon responses on both copies. Keep one in your room. Give the other to your Community Assistant.

COMMUNICATION

1. How often will we meet to go over the roommate agreement?
2. How and when should we communicate with each other if one of us has an issue to talk about?
3. When we disagree or are in conflict, how would we like to facilitate discussion and resolution? (e.g., alcohol or drug use, other policy violations, intimate relationships, room decorations, etc.)
4. What are some things that we are comfortable sharing with each other?
5. What are some things that we are not comfortable sharing with each other?
5. What are our expectations of the roommate relationship?

GUESTS/VISITORS

1. When is it ok for each of us to have guests in the room?
2. When is it too late to have guests?
4. When, if ever, is it ok for one of us to have an overnight guest in the room?
5. If one of us is away for the weekend, may that person's bed be used by a guest?

STUDY/SLEEP TIME

1. When do each of us typically go to bed on week nights?
2. What time do we want to have lights out during the week?
3. When do each of us typically get up during the week?
4. If one person is sleeping, what activities are acceptable in the room?
5. What type of environment helps each of us concentrate on our studies most effectively (e.g., music or no music, others in the room, etc.)?

USE OF BELONGINGS

1. What belongings are ok to share?
2. What belongings are NOT ok to borrow unless permission is granted by the owner?
3. What shared belongings do we have?
4. How will we share them?

CLEANLINESS & CLIMATE OF ROOM

1. What is our plan for keeping the room clean?
2. How often and who will take out the trash and recycling?
3. When will the windows be closed and opened?
4. Are there particular things that any of us are allergic to (e.g., dust, latex, etc.)
